

Improving quality of life for the people we serve while protecting the integrity of the environment.

Environmental Education Professional Development Workshops

MCP RC&D is pleased to offer interactive, interdisciplinary professional development and resources that correlate with framework competences in multiple subjects to the elementary schools of the MS Gulf Coast.

Schools represented at the summer workshops are given priority for scheduling the Longleaf Pine Unit in their schools during the 2010-2011 school year.

Summer Workshop Opportunities

- June 1, 2010
Food, Land and People
Longleaf Pine Unit
MGCCC George County Center
- June 2, 2010
Food, Land and People
Longleaf Pine Unit
Pearl River Community College
- June 17, 2010
Project Learning Tree
MSU Coastal Research and Extension Center

.6 CEUs

$50.00 Registration Fee

Stipend Available

Includes materials, instruction, lunch and .6 Continuing Education Units (CEUs).

Contact MCPRC&D for more information.

