Introducing MAAE President-elect: MARK BROWN

Mark Brown is an instructor of visual art at Jones County Junior College in Ellisville, MS, and is incoming President-Elect of the MAAE. It is Mark's responsibility to observe the procedures of President Marlynn Martin, as she guides the planning and actions of MAAE in conjunction with the board of directors. Mark has been an instructor at the elementary (Gulfport City Schools), secondary (Stone County High School) and adjunct at the University of Southern Mississippi. Additionally, Brown directed the education programs for the Lauren Rogers Museum of Art in Laurel, MS, for 8 years, prior to becoming full-time faculty at Jones County Junior College. Brown holds a Bachelor of Fine Art from Mississippi State University, and a Master of Art Education with a studio emphasis from the University of Southern Mississippi. Brown is also an exhibiting artist. Mark will travel to his first KCAEN Annual Meeting in Washington, DC, Feb. 9 - 12, to represent our organization.

TITLE: “21st Century Schools for 21st Century Students: An Innovative Workshop for K-12 Teachers and Administrators”

What are the critical characteristics and multiple literacies that move our schools from the 21st Century into the 21st Century? This workshop explores the paradigm shift and essential steps needed to adequately prepare millennium students for their future through interactive, collaborative exercises, technology information, and a model interdisciplinary lesson. Topics include brain compatible learning, Depth of Knowledge, 21st Century Skills, and the move from STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) to STEAM (incorporating the ARTS with the STEM areas). The Mississippi Alliance for Arts Education, which advocates for balanced curriculum and rich arts experiences for all students in Mississippi, presents this workshop.

PLEASE share this information with all teachers and principals/administrators! The workshops are free. Administrators will receive 5 SEMI credits. Teachers will receive .6 CEUs ($20, checks made out to MSU). 8:30 am - 4:00 pm full day.
